Course Description

This workshop invites you into a unique process of exploring more creative ways of self-expression! Jan will lead you in constructing your own mixed-media abstraction.....combining aggressive textures and unusual mediums with various materials, including acrylic paint, acrylic inks and gels.

Jan's focus in this workshop will be on layered and experimental art. Learning to express unsuspected insights into the content of your work.....using aggressive textures and unusual mediums. The ability to bring the various "raw" pieces and layers of materials into their final stages, within the whole of a painting....this is 'accomplishment'....like discovering a new world!! Come join us!!
